

Volunteer Job Description

Blog Writer

- Collaborate with ODND's Communications Director to plan an editorial calendar for regularly scheduled blog posts in various categories, including these ideas:
 - Featured dogs looking for homes
 - Perfect matches (success stories about dogs and their adopters)
 - The joys of fostering old dogs
 - Featured volunteers
 - Upcoming events
- Collaborate with case managers to gather information about and photos of dogs to be featured in blog posts
- Collaborate with editor / proofreader (Communications Director) to fine-tune blog posts
- Collaborate with web developer to publish blog posts

WANTED — OLD-DOG-LOVING BLOG WRITER

Old Dogs New Digs is seeking a dog-loving volunteer with blog-writing experience.

We're looking for someone who is expert at developing engaging content with attention to grammar, punctuation, and readability on a regular schedule. The content's focus would be on promoting the mission of Old Dogs New Digs.

Ideally, we'd like to find someone who is passionate about contributing to the animal welfare movement.

Please email ODND (at woof@olddogsnewdigs.com) or complete our volunteer survey to express your interest in this volunteer job.